Cambridge Occasional Papers in Linguistics

Department of Theoretical & Applied Linguistics
University of Cambridge

October 2017

The editors are pleased to announce a call for the eleventh volume of the Cambridge Occasional Papers in Linguistics. For aims, scope and submission requirements not covered in this call, please refer to the COPiL homepage at <http://www.ling.cam.ac.uk/COPIL>.

The editors welcome submissions of full research papers (10,000 word limit, excluding references) and squibs (3,500 word limit, excluding references). Submissions are open to all members of the University of Cambridge. We especially encourage submissions from previously underrepresented areas, e.g. phonetics, pragmatics, language acquisition, computational linguistics, language contact, etc.

We encourage both PhD and MPhil students to submit their research, and advise all graduate students to have their submissions pre-approved by their supervisor(s).

We strongly encourage authors to submit their manuscripts in .tex (L^AT_EX) format with a separate .bib file containing the bibliography. Word (.doc/ .docx) submissions will also be accepted. Formatting guidelines can be found here.

The deadline for submissions is 28th February 2018.

Please send your submissions electronically to Jim Baker (jb750@cam.ac.uk), Li Nguyen (nhbn2@cam.ac.uk) and/or Julio Song (cs791@cam.ac.uk). Any other queries may also be made to these addresses.
